Morris Named Top Public Liberal Arts College by About.com

Summary: Morris has been ranked among About.com's top ten public liberal arts colleges.

(January 25, 2013)-The University of Minnesota, Morris has been ranked among About.com's top ten public liberal arts colleges. Compiled by Allen Grove, About.com's guide for college admissions, the list includes public colleges that place an emphasis on quality teaching and undergraduate education. Each school has a liberal arts curriculum and fewer than 10,000 undergraduate students.

Morris is the only Minnesota school to be included on this list. Other institutions include the College of Charleston, the College of New Jersey, the New College of Florida, Ramapo College of New Jersey, Saint Mary's College of Maryland, State University of New York Geneseo, Truman State University, the University of Mary Washington, and the University of North Carolina at Asheville.
